

How to Start a Love?

(Adapted from "Have You Ever Really Loved a Woman" by Bryan Adams)

She wants to run, she wants to fly
She wants tear down the walls, the walls of shame
She wants to reach out and touch the sky
Where the streets have no shame

To really love a man
To really dream of loving him forever
You got understand where he stands
Baby, you got to stand your ground
You got listen to the messengers
You know there is a joke around
Stay in the pub of this town
They say you got stop dreaming
Dreaming of eternal love

When you love a man you can't stop thinking of him
When you love a man you can't stop dreaming of making love to him
But she needs somebody to tell her that it ain't gonna last forever
So tell me how to start a love?
When you don't know how to end a love?

So tell me how to start a love?
When you don't know how to end a love?

To really love a man
To really dream of loving him forever
You got understand where he stands
Let him hold you, hold you tight
Feel the love in his blood
You got give wings for him to fly
When it's time to leave, to say goodbye
And if the end is before the beginning
You should open the gate now and let him free

When you love a man you can't stop thinking of him
When you love a man you can't stop dreaming of making love to him
But she needs somebody to tell her that it ain't gonna last forever
So tell me how to start a love?
When you don't know how to end a love?

So tell me how to start a love?
When you don't know how to end a love?

So tell me how to start a love?
When you don't know how to end a love?
