

Monster Baby

(adapted from various songs)

They've been calling me the monster baby
Ever since the day I laid in a cradle
They'll be calling me the monster baby
Till the day I lay in the grave
But I ain't a monster baby
'cause I hurt no one

Each and every morning
I wake up with an ironclad fist
They say I'm going to bring devastation
With swords and guillotines
Driving by my little flirting thoughts
They call out everybody run
'cause the monster baby is coming
Everybody is panicking 'cause I'm gigantic, titanic

But I ain't a monster baby
Don't let the rumourmongers fool you
No, no, no, no, no, no
I ain't a monster baby

I'm a monster of love
Full of desire, full of lust
I've been hanging about at the Hotel for so long
So please keep the faith
They know I'll be the last man standing
'cause I'm staying alive

Mothers and fathers, tell your children
That their lives has just begun
I have suffered for my rage
There are wars that can't be won
The rumormongers won't stop the lies
So I've got hold on and staying alive

But I ain't a monster baby
Don't let the rumourmongers fool you
No, no, no, no, no, no
I ain't a monster baby

I'm a monster of love
Full of desire, full of lust
I've been hanging about at the Hotel for so long
So please keep the faith
They know I'll be the last man standing
'cause I'm staying alive

But I ain't a monster baby
Don't let the rumourmongers fool you
No, no, no, no, no, no
I ain't a monster baby

But I ain't a monster baby
Don't let the rumourmongers fool you
No, no, no, no, no, no
I ain't a monster baby

No, no, no, no, no, no
I ain't a monster baby

No, no, no, no, no, no
I ain't a monster baby

No, no, no, no, no, no
I ain't a monster baby
